

THE COMPLETE DECONTAMINATION PROCESS - ENDOSCOPY

A one-day course held at Manepa's Training
Facility, Dublin.

24th July 2014

In association with the Getinge Academy

Manepa, in partnership with the Getinge Training Academy are delivering the above course at Manepa's Head-Office in Greenogue Business Park, Rathcoole, Co. Dublin. This course is designed to meet the requirements for staff training in Endoscope Decontamination Units. We are offering places at a significantly reduced cost, and at an easily accessible location.

Suitable for:

The course provides an overview and basic understanding of the endoscope decontamination process, and is suitable for all health care professionals/technicians.

Programme

- Types of endoscopes and procedures
- Structure and function of endoscopes
- Manual cleaning
- Principles of operation/function of Endoscope Washer Disinfectors
- Tracking and tracing
- Storage, and transport

Accredited by

City and Guilds Accredited

This is a generic programme, suitable for delegates who use any make/type of equipment, and the programme and course provider are City and Guilds accredited.

Highly Recommended - Comments from previous course delegates

"Every element of the course was interesting and put across exceptionally well"

"The course was very informative and interesting. It was made and presented well, and enjoyable"

"Course pitched at an understandable level, Excellent"

Cost:

€180 per person

Includes refreshments, lunch and course material

How to book:

Please complete and return the booking form attached to Manepa Medical via:

Email: support@manepa.com

Fax: 01 4105660

In association with the Getinge Academy

A C A D E M Y

GETINGE

GETINGE GROUP